

Piper Creek Trial Garden

The Grand Opening Ceremony of the Piper Creek Trial Garden will take place Saturday, July 27, 2013 at 10:00 am at Ecoglen Farm, home of Lorne and Marilyn McArthur. The farm is located just south of the City of Red Deer Landfill Site on 40th Avenue.

Hybridizers from Alberta and other parts of Canada and the USA will have 22 varieties of dahlias growing in the Trial Garden. This event will be an exciting day with a visit by the Mayor of Red Deer and many dahlia growers and hybridizers. Come out and celebrate the Grand Opening of the Piper Creek Trial Garden.

View of the Trial Garden, Club House & Dining Table

Lorne McArthur and Wayne Roberts planning where the seedlings will be planted

Wayne and Lorne

Lorne McArthur planting the seedlings